

INTELCAN WELCOMES NEW CEO – GEORGES ATA

OTTAWA, ONTARIO, CANADA – JULY 14, 2008

Intelcan, a global leader in the field of Air Traffic Control and Aviation Infrastructure, is pleased to announce the appointment of Georges Ata as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Intelcan Technosystems Inc. Mr. Ata assumes the CEO responsibilities from Mr. Max Rutherford, who resigned from the position, earlier this year.

"I am pleased to have the opportunity to lead a company with an international presence and exceptional track record in effectively implementing turnkey aviation projects around the globe." says Mr. Ata.

Mr. Ata brings extensive corporate development, sales, engineering and operational experience that spans almost two decades. Prior to joining Intelcan, Mr. Ata was Vice President Engineering and Operations for Adacel Technologies Limited, responsible for the delivery of all CNS/ATM and ATC Simulation programs around the globe. Under his leadership, Adacel completed major CNS/ATM programs such as ATOP, ERAM, NAV Portugal upgrades, and Simulation programs for military and civilian customers in the US and International markets. In addition, Mr. Ata held senior management positions at Eicon Networks as Director of the ISDN Business unit and in other companies such as Zeroknowledge and Rational Software. In 2006, Mr. Ata received the award "Prix Relève d'Excellence" in the category Small-Medium Size Businesses from HEC of Montreal, one of Canada's leading business schools, for his career accomplishments to date and his role as Adacel's VP of Operations and Engineering.

Georges Ata has a Master of Business Administration, specializing in Finance and Executive Management from Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) de Montreal, and a BS degree in Software Engineering from Ecole Polytechnique de Montreal.

"I'm very pleased to be able to welcome Georges as Intelcan's CEO," states Intelcan's Chairman of the Board, Mark Whittall. "Georges is an experienced executive who is well known in the aviation sector for his leadership and innovation. His international experience and in-depth knowledge of our industry make him the ideal candidate to take Intelcan's business forward. I look forward to working with him, as does the rest of our team."
